

YogaVision presents Vedic Astrology Retreat

Jyotisha (the science of light) is derived from the sages and seers of ancient India. It has always formed an integral part of the yoga tradition and the yogic way of life.

Over the course of one weekend retreat conducted at the beautiful and tranquil Govinda Valley retreat you will learn:

- To analyse you own astrological birth chart.
- Understand your karmic strengths and how to take advantage of them.
- Understand the problem areas of your life and how to manage them.
- Understand the path of your individual destiny.
- How to develop a vision for your future.

This introductory course in the astrological science of ancient India has been developed by Andre Melis, one of the directors of the Govinda Valley project, and a life-long practitioner of the yogic way of life. The course is certain to be stimulating, interactive, enlightening and inspiring. As a result of this one weekend immersion in the light of Jyotisha it is guaranteed that your life will never be the same again.
